

Dustin Lee

has been busy in the studio since last November working on his forthcoming CD, titled "On My Way Back Home". This project coupled him with seasoned industry professionals who have provided a wide variety of performance and production support.

Currently living in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Dustin is a singer/songwriter who is native to Fort Madison, Iowa. He is well known for crafting moving, thoughtful, and poignant songs inspired by his life in the Hawkeye State.

The new CD comes on the heels of his previously released "Milwaukee Acoustic Sessions", which was recorded and released shortly after his move to the area.

Since arriving in southeastern Wisconsin, Dustin has been busy performing for a new legion of fans at a wide variety of venues. He periodically appears with other local, national, and international artists.

"On My Way Back Home" spotlights Dustin's signature delivery and famously powerful vocals. It is scheduled for release in April of 2009
